The Highlander, Main Road, Crosby, is a substantial detached family home occupying a generous plot in a prime position on the famous TT course, offering front row seats to the racing action together with beautiful surrounding countryside views. Formerly a restaurant, the property now provides spacious and highly flexible accommodation presented in excellent order throughout.

The heart of the home is the impressive open plan kitchen, dining and family room which is flooded with natural light and creates a fantastic sociable living space. The modern fitted kitchen offers a great range of wall and base units together with integrated appliances, while the dining area enjoys a lovely bay window overlooking the gardens. The family area benefits from a log burner creating a warm and welcoming atmosphere. Off the kitchen is a generous utility and preparation room with access to the rear garden.

To the opposite side of the property is a superb entertaining space currently arranged as a lounge bar area retaining the original bar, making it ideal for entertaining, a games room or additional living accommodation. A modern shower room is also located off this area.

To the first floor are three spacious double bedrooms together with modern bathroom facilities, while the top floor features a large bedroom suite open to a further sitting area offering excellent flexibility for guests or older children.

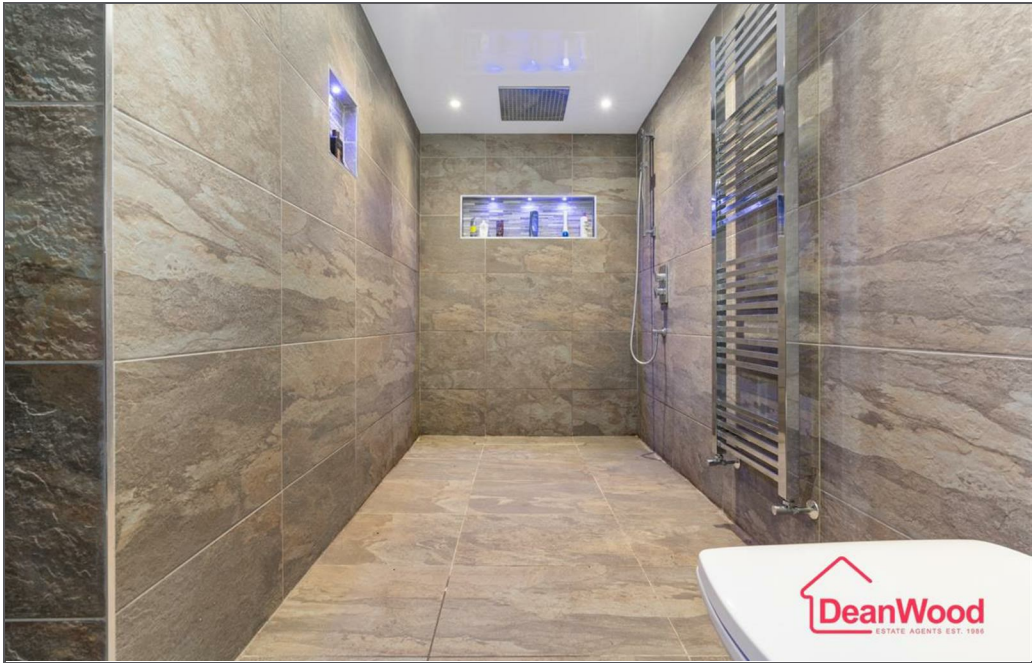

Externally, the property enjoys ample parking to the front for multiple vehicles. The rear garden features paved seating areas, attractive lawns, mature shrubs and colourful flower borders surrounded by picturesque rural fields. Further benefits include a large storage room and solar panels to the front elevation.
