Crofton House is a distinctive home with a great deal of potential. It sits back from the Honna Road on a generous plot of approximately 1.25 acres, with lawned gardens to the front and rear and mature hedgerows giving privacy on all sides. From the house there are superb rural views across Rowany, and Port Erin is a short distance away. The accommodation is spacious and full of light. At its centre is a large family kitchen, with a living room, dining room, snug and entertainment or games room around it, as well as a dedicated home office. The six bedrooms include two en-suite rooms on the ground floor, and there is also a family bathroom and two separate WCs. A sheltered courtyard behind the house links it to the garden and the detached indoor swimming pool, which has changing rooms and underfloor heating. A detached solarium with a shower room completes the leisure space. The property now needs modernisation and updating, which gives a buyer the opportunity to shape it to their own taste. Its layout also offers scope to create an annex for multi-generational living, subject to the necessary consents. The windows to the front elevation have recently been replaced with double glazing. Outside, there is a large driveway, a car port and an integral double garage.
